

National Marketing Manger

Looking for a team player who will be a connector and leader that champions our strategy to grow a great business.

As the National Marketing Manager, reporting to the Group GM Marketing you will head up a dynamic small shared services team who supports 7 divisions across Australia and New Zealand for Legend Corporation www.legend.com.au

Leading the marketing team, you will have the ability to work collaboratively to create a results' driven team orientate environment. This is a hands-on roll focused on delivering in a timely manner and within budget our Customer Experience strategy. We are looking for new and innovative approaches to marketing to achieve our goals. So, your creativity and commitment to detailed execution will delivery our Division's Customer Value Propositions and results through traditional marketing programs and your new initiatives. You will be working very closely with all departments and divisions.

Located in modern facilities in North West Sydney with onsite parking, we offer a dynamic working environment, internet café and free gym membership.

Your team currently consists of a blend of talent including Graphic and Web Designers, Social Media, Online content Coordinator both here in Sydney and Adelaide.

To be the successful candidate needs to be ready for a challenge with a passion to enjoy the journey, self-motivated, success and results orientated with proven experience in managing a budget and building a successful team.

Bachelor's degree in Business (Marketing), Creative and innovative thinker? - If this sounds like you, someone who is ready for a challenge and to test new marketing ideas to help us step change Legend Corporation. We would love to talk to you.